NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second years, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on the 6th of December, 1862 is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	148,000
Aggregate	215,375

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, THE TRIBUNE has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" hence forth and forever.

THE TRIBUNE devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise, can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

The Emperor Nicholas on England, France, and America.

In 1855 the New Orleans Bee published the following extract from a letter addressed to a citizen of New Orleans by a Russian friend, then a resident at Petersburg. It will now be read with interest:

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb., 1855

Before my letter reaches you, you will probably have received intelligence of a loss that will spread a gloomy veil over all Russia; for the death of such a man is a blow that not only strikes of the whole world.—In my last letter I did not dare openly declare what we were expecting from day to day, for we were unwilling to accustom our hearts to an idea which our minds were incapable of conceiving. The last days of the Czar are a whole century in the history of Russia, and will never be forgotten by those who witnessed them. Do you imagine that he was exasperated with his foes? Quite the contrary. Impartially, like a philosopher, he gazed upon the present situation of the European Powers, and predicted the future with the accuracy of one who looks far beyond the present.

"England," said he, "has reached her culminating point, either for life or death. There is no middle point for her to pursue. One thing alone may save her, and that is a free confession, not only by the Government but by the whole aristocracy, made to the people that they have been absurd from first to last—that the crown is unable any longer to maintain its power, and that the people must arise and unite together as one man to save the honor and preserve the integrity of the country. A candid acknowledgment of truth may even now save England, if her corrupt aristocracy can be brought to the stool of confession. France on the other hand, can maintain herself only by falsehood and deception. The Emperor may proclaim to his subjects that he governs and influences the affairs of all Europe—that a shot can not be fired without his permission, and France is the first Power in Europe; but a single shock, one speech of a demagogue, may overthrow him and darken the star of Napoleon forever.

"I have offered him my hand—the hand of reconciliation; but he refused it. He wishes to avenge Moscow upon me, and St. Helena upon England. Short sighted men, who seek to avenge the sins of the fathers upon the child. [illegible] Germany, Austria and [illegible] had not saved them when they crouched at my feet six years ago; they think to strengthen themselves in the mighty struggle between the other nations of Europe. But they never have been, and never will be, more than secondary Powers, satraps holding power by the clemency of my house, or by permission of the Western Powers. Yet one conclusion is left me in the midst of all this in gratitude and villainy, and this is the sympathy of that high hearted people on the other side of the Atlantic, the only hearts in which I have an echo of my struggles against United Europe. Never have I forgotten the smallest kindness shown to me by the least of my subjects; let my children never forget what we owe to America, and if ever an hour of danger darkens around the Union, let her find a faithful ally in my family."

These words may be of interest to you, my friend, because you are now living amongst the Americans, and I mention them knowing that your sympathies have bound you to a foreign land nearly half a century. One learns to recognize his true friends in the hour of danger, and you may rely upon it that, as long as a Romanoff sits on the Russian throne, the American States will never need a friend.

The above says the Bee, is a faithful and most literal translation from the letter, which is written in German, by one of the noblest of Courland, residing in St. Petersburg. From the source whence we received it, we have no hesitation in guaranteeing its authenticity.

A WORKING MAN'S VIEWS.—M. G. Moffat, a working man, thus speaks to the aristocratic sympathizers with the South in England, through the columns of the London Daily News:

"It may be fashionable with the upper ten thousand to sympathize with the slave breeding aristocrats of the South, but we of humbler birth have deeper ties to bind us to America, both political and social. When we see the great number leaving our shores for that great country, and as four out of six are relations of us common folks, what will be our feeling? What of mine, having sisters and all that is very dear to me, if we see our men of war bombarding New York city, knowing morally we have been the cause? If we are not allowed to vote and make the government here, we will not quietly allow the people's government to be destroyed there.—Working men are seldom heard in print upon this question; but let not our gentry suppose there is no sympathy for the North here. They will make an awful mistake if they go to war with America. It may be popular with the rich, the snobs and the city swells, but not with working men. Let them remember the Lancashire men starving first sooner than lift up a finger against true liberty."

Our Dead at Gettysburg.

To the Editor of the Telegraph:

SIR: The arrangements are nearly completed for the removal of the remains of the Union soldiers scattered over the Gettysburg battlefield to the burial ground which is being prepared by the several States interested, for their reception and proper burial.

All the dead will be disinterred, and the remains placed in coffins and buried, and the graves where marked or known, will be carefully and permanently re-marked in this soldier's cemetery.

If it is the intention of the friends of any deceased soldier to take his remains home for burial, they will confer a favor by immediately making known to me that intention. After the bodies are reinterred to this cemetery, it will be very desirable not to disarrange the order of the graves by any removals.

Very respectfully,
DAVID WILLIS,
Agent for A. G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania.

GETTYSBURG, Oct. 5, '63.

The press throughout all the States will confer a public favor by publishing the above.

"Well, how do you like the looks of the varmint?" said a "southwestern" to a "down-eastern" who was gazing with round-eyed wonder, evidently for the first time, at a huge alligator, with wide-opened jaws, on the muddy banks of the Mississippi. "Wall," replied the Yankee, "he ain't what you may call a handsum critter, but he's got a great deal to recommend him."

A Strategetic Landlord.

A Chicago paper states that a man in the West Division owned a house—which he tenanted out on a more parole of verbal lease. The tenant paid no attention to the notice—indeed paid no attention to several notices. The owner found (as all owners who let houses without a written lease may find) that without legally as much expense and trouble as the house was worth, he could not get his tenant out.

In this dilemma he hit upon a strategetic expedient. He read in the papers how Gen. Grant "cut off the enemies communications" at Vicksburg, thus placing him in a situation where, as soon as his supplies were exhausted, he must surrender at discretion. Our Western landlord resolved to cut off his tenant's communications.

He employed a house mover, requested him to bring an extra supply of blocks. The house mover came with his blocks and commenced raising the building. When he had raised it about four feet from the ground the tenant called a parley. The owner said "Move" the tenant said "No!"—House raiser went on with his work. The next morning the tenant found his front door about eighteen feet above the surface of the earth, and no front stairway. It was an elevation from which to jump would be dangerous.—He called for a ladder. "Move" the tenant looked down sadly upon the beautiful earth spread out beneath him, and agreed to move. A ladder was brought down which the tenant and his household goods descended.

Didn't Care if He Did.

In olden time, before the Maine laws were invented, Wing kept the hotel at Middle Granville, and from his well stocked bar furnished "accommodations for man and beast."

He was a good man, but most terribly deaf. Fish, the village painter, was also afflicted in the same way.

One day they were sitting alone in the bar-room. Wing was behind the counter waiting for the next customer, while Fish was lounging before the fire with thirsty look casting sheep's eyes occasionally at Wing's decanters, and wishing most devoutly that some one would come in and kindly treat.

A traveller from Pennsylvania, on his way to Brandon, stepped in to inquire the distance. Going up to the counter he said:

"Can you tell me, sir, how far it is to Brandon?"

"Brandy!" says the ready landlord, and at the same time placing before the traveller the precious liquor.

"You misunderstand me," said the stranger; "I asked how far it was to Brandon."

"They call it pretty good brandy," said Wing. "Will you take sugar with it?" reaching, as he spoke, for the bowl and toddy stick.

The despairing traveler, turned to Fish and said:

"The landlord seems to be deaf; will you tell me how far it is to Brandon?"

"I'll ask you sir, said Fish." "I don't care if I do take a drink with you."

The stranger treated and left.

"He made a few desultory remarks," said the school master.

Mrs. Partington stopped and busily in the bustle she was making around the table for tea, and gazed over her specs thoughtfully at him. Leaning on a plate edgewise, as if to enforce her views by the support it gave her, "I suppose it was because he was weak," said she, "but Ayer's Pills will cure him. I never knew 'em to fail. They are very salutary in such cases."

"Really, madam," replied he—"I cannot guess your meaning."

"You said dysentery," said she, laying down a plate and putting a spoon into the preserves.

"I said desultory," said he, smiling, "quite a different thing."

"No matter," she said, looking up in time to box Ike's ears, who was putting paper down the chimney of the kerosene lamp. "The Pills are good for both, I daresay, for they cure almost all the diseases in the conucopia."

SOUTHERN DICTIONARY.—Southern Rights—Negroes.

Southern Chivalry—Mulattoes.

Democrat—A follower of Breckinridge.

Constitutional—Plundering the arms of the United States, taking the forts robbing the mint, abstracting the Trust Funds and making war on the Government.

Unconstitutional—To defend the Government; to vote Southern politicians out of office; to say anything about negroes.

A Christian Minister—One who prays for Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy, curses Old Abe and hates the Yankees.

CONSCIENCE.—At a Sunday school the other afternoon, a bright looking little fellow was asked, "What is conscience?"

He answered very promptly, "An inward monitor."

"And what is a monitor?"

"Oh, one of the iron-clads."

"John," said a stingy old bunk, to his hired man, as he was taking dinner, "do you know how many pancakes you've eaten?"

"No."

"Well, you've eaten fourteen."

"Well," said John, "you count and I'll eat."

BEAVER ARGUS

Wednesday, Oct. 28, 1863.

D. L. IMBRIE, Editor & Proprietor.

For President in 1864,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

Aid and Comfort.

Under the above caption, the Star of last week complains that the political campaign which has just closed, was fought by their opponents upon false issues.

We think a candid and impartial view of the facts will show that the party of the Star made the issues, and forced them upon the people. If these were false issues, and if, as the Star intimates, the party was charged with doctrines which it never taught, action which it never committed, and principles which it never espoused, it has no one to blame but its own chosen leaders.

The convention which nominated Judge Woodward emphatically endorsed Mr. Vallandigham, and thus committed its candidate to the obnoxious principles advocated by the latter. In vain did honest members of the party beseech and warn the leaders that such action was suicidal. In vain did men of long standing and great prominence in the Democratic ranks, plead with those who engineered through the platform on which Judge Woodward was placed. But stopping their ears to the voices of those whose position in the party gave them a right to be heard, and closing their eyes to the fatal consequences, which a rash perseverence in the course marked out by Hughes was inevitably bringing on, the leaders in that convention deliberately put themselves in an attitude of hostility to the Administration, upon a vital point, viz: that of vigorously prosecuting the war. They undertook to commit the Democracy of Pennsylvania to the heresies of such men as Fernando Wood and Horatio Seymour. The consequence was as might have been expected. The more intelligent and right-minded of the party, in every county in the State, openly repudiated the platform and the candidate; and so the party, or rather that portion of it which "went it blind," was left in the lurch—went earlier as it ought to have done.

This is, we conceive, the cause of the defeat which has so justly overtaken those who have ruined the once powerful Democratic Party.

We learn that are about to call a meeting of the County Officers and leading citizens of the District to assemble at Washington, Washington co, Pa., to adopt some uniform action in the several counties for the encouragement and promotion of volunteering under the recent call of the President.

We trust that every citizen and officer having the best interests of his country at heart will attend. By filling our quota a draft could be avoided altogether.

We learn Capt. Cuthbertson will furnish free transportation by application at his office. Thursday the 5th of November has been designated as the day for the meeting. Those intending to go should leave here Wednesday morning by early train for Wheeling.

Official Majorities in the State.

The following is the official vote of Pennsylvania for Governor and Supreme Judge, complete:

Curtin	269496
Woodward	254171
Curtin's majority	15325
Agnew	267197
Lowrie	254855
Agnew's majority	12342

ROBBERY.—The store of M. & S. H. Darragh, in Sharon, was broken into on Saturday night last, and robbed of $20 in small silver, $350 in U. S. bonds and certificates of deposit, 30 or 40 yards of alpaca, 4 or 5 pairs boots, socks, gloves, &c. The thieves made their entrance into the store through the cellar.

A MONSTER GUN.—The patterns have been made and preparations commenced at the Fort Pitt foundry, Pittsburg, for the casting of a gun which will have a bore of twenty inches. Its length will be twenty feet, and its greatest diameter at the breech, five feet four inches. It will weigh about 114,000 pounds.

Loyal Democracy.

There always appeared to be a kind of charm in the word Democracy, because it expresses the sovereign power committed to the keeping of the people; but like all the great systems of reform, with their intrinsic value, Democracy has been most shamefully abused, and nowhere has this truth been more fully demonstrated than in the political history of our loved country. From the birthday of independence, when the charter of American Liberty, sealed by the blood of the revolutionary fathers, until now, true democratic principles have been espoused and faithfully advocated by the wise statesman and noble patriot. Jefferson, the great apostle and founder of that once powerful organization called the democratic party, set forth principles which were the very life-blood of our national prosperity; and from the perusing of that immortal document, the Declaration of Independence, until the present time, his name has been immortalized by the historian, and his praises sung by the admiring bard. Strange, however, as it appears to us, yet true it is, that a very considerable proportion of the professed followers of Jefferson and the worshipers of the name of Democracy, have allied themselves with traitors and are found battling against the true creed of their party, and seeking the destruction of our glorious Union. But whilst we denounce the rebels, Jeff. Davis, Vallandigham, Breckinridge and all their followers, as not only unworthy the name of Democrats, but richly deserving Haman's fate, yet we greet with pleasure and pride that portion of the Democratic party who have proved themselves to be the real followers of Jefferson, by a strict adherence to the Constitution of the United States and a zealous support of the properly constituted authorities of the Government; they are to be found in the camp and upon the battle field engaged in deadly conflict with the treasonable enemies of our beloved country; their mangled bodies fill the shallow graves that mark many a battle-field in the North and West, and their bones lie bleaching along the plains of the South; they are found in the Cabinet of the United States, at the head of our armies, in the State Department, and upon the stump, and thousands of them at the ballot-box on the second Tuesday of October, 1863. The glorious victories won at the late elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio, were not achieved by Republicans alone,—the loyal patriotic Democrats triumphant election of John Brough of Ohio, a life-long Democrat of the Jeffersonian School, and Andrew G. Curtin, the soldiers' true friend, to the Gubernatorial chairs of their respective States, Vallandigham the exiled traitor, and Woodward his partner, were not only chastised, but treason at the South, and copperheadism at the North, received a blow that will send them reeling to their graves; and the arm that dealt that blow was nerved by the Loyal Democrats, and yet some small copperheads ask you to believe that only a few renegades support the Administration in their faithful prosecution of the war. But let us name a few of these renegades. Oh! what a noble list, and how lengthy! It would comprise nearly all the men who have given tone and character to the Democratic party in its past history. Stephen A. Douglas, although dead, yet speaks, for he sacrificed all party ties in behalf of his country and set an example worthy the imitation of his friends. Where stands General Logan, the war horse of Illinois Democracy; Lewis Cass, Gens. Grant, Rosecrans, and M'Clernand, the talented and influential Democratic leader, and Judge Catron, the ablest jurist of Illinois, Senator Rice of Minnesota, Wright, and Brough, the governor elect of Ohio, ex-Governor Todd, Gen Butler, of Massachusetts, Gen. Canon of Delaware, Guthrie, Holt and Andy Johnston, Robert Dale Owen, United States Minister to Naples under Buchanan, Gov Coney of Maine, ex-Senator Foster, Dickinson of New York, Dix, Sickles, Meagher and scores of others the acknowledged leaders of the party whom we might name—But what a contrast to this noble and loyal array is presented by the copperhead crew, who now pretend to lead the Democratic party—Vallandigham and little Pugh of Ohio, Bright of Indiana, Merrick of Illinois, Woodward of Penna., and the Woods of New York, all in sympathy with treason, and yet we find men even here, void of patriotism, who take these traitors to their embrace and disgrace the name by calling them Democrats.

☞ Governor Morton, of Indiana, is raising eleven regiments of volunteers—seven of infantry and four of cavalry—at eleven different camps. It is intended that they shall be full by the 10th of November.

Col. D. B Morris.

On a late visit to Pittsburg, we had the pleasure of meeting the above named officer, now commanding the 101st Reg. Penna. Vols., formerly Col. Wilson's. As that regiment has in it three companies from this county and was formerly commaned by that noble son of Beaver county, the loved and lamented Col. Wilson, a brief notice of its present brave and gallant commander would not be inappropriate. On the breaking out of the rebellion, Colonel, then Captain, Morris, was one of the first to volunteer.—He raised a company, joined the 13th regiment, and with it served during the three months campaign. Returning when the term of service had expired, he was so popular as an officer that he was offered the position of Lieut. Colonel in the 101st regiment, then being raised by Col. Hultz.—When Col. Hultz was removed and Col. Wilson appointed to command the regiment, Col. Morris was continued in his position and with Col. Wilson succeeded in recruiting the regiment to its maximum, much sooner than many others who commanded earlier. The regiment was taken to the Peninsula early in the spring of 1862, shortly after its organization, and served through all that disastrous campaign. It is useless now to enumerate the hardships and dangers to which they were exposed. The history of that regiment is already well known by the citizens of this county. In two months the regiment was reduced from eight hundred and fifty to three hundred and fifty by battle and disease. Col. Morris was with the regiment from the day it landed on the Peninsula until the battle of Fair Oaks. He was at the Seige of Yorktown and with the regiment at its first fight at the battle of Williamsburg.—Shortly after that battle, Col. Wilson was prostrated with the fever of which he died and Col. Morris assumed command of the regiment, then in the front of the army marching on Richmond. He was severely and it was feared dangerously wounded at the battle of Fair Oaks. After months of suffering he so far recovered as to be able to take the field again, and has since been with his regiment in North Carolina. As an officer, Col. Morris has few if any superiors—understanding the drill perfectly, and comprehending in a moment positions and remedies. He is strict and unyielding when in the performance of duty, at other times agreeable and winning in his manners. Col. Morris possesses too, what is indispensable in every soldier, true bravery. At the battle of Fair Oaks, he was cool and collected giving his orders in a firm and unhesitating voice when death was reigning thick and fast, and his regiment was melting away like snow before the sun. We may seem to speak in strong terms, yet we do him simple justice. No better man could have taken the place of Col. Wilson, and we are proud to point to him as the commander of a regiment, which Beaver county claims. We understand the President has recommended the Colonel for promotion, may be commissioned as it would be a just reward of an able officer who has proved his devotion by long service, and through many dangers.

We were shown an article that appeared shortly after the return of Capt. May, in which it was stated that he was not promoted owing to the petty jealousy of one man. It is proper to state, as some have misconstrued it, that it does not apply to Col. Morris or any one in the regiment. During Col. Morris' absence the regiment is under the command of that popular officer of this county, Col. A. W. Taylor. * * *

EDITOR ARGUS:—The elegant and classic correspondent of the Star, over the signature of "Justice," denies that our report of Mr. Daugherty's speech at the Brighton township meeting is correct. That he was present at the meeting, and heard all that was said, and pronounces the story a deliberate falsehood, and that we ought to be sent to the Penitentiary. Why does not Mr. Daugherty come out and deny the statement over his own signature, if he is not guilty? The mere denial of the fact by an outside party, without further testimony, does not change the case in the least. If Mr. Daugherty denies that he made the remark attributed to him, let him do so over his own signature, and then further testimony will be forthcoming. As to the very complimentary remarks of this correspondent, we will only say that if he had had justice done him, he would now be serving his country in a drafted regiment.

VINDEX.

☞ Secretary Stanton and Colonel Stager, Superintendent of Military Telegraphs, on their recent trip West were "put through" from Pittsburg to Cleveland, by special train, in four hours and thirty minutes. To express his satisfaction with the arrangements on the road the Secretary has addressed the following complimentary note to the Superintendent.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 19th.—C. E. Gorman, Assistant Superintendent.—The Secretary of War desires to return his acknowledgements for the prompt and skillful manner with which he was transported over your road, and asks you to convey his thanks to the officers in charge of the train. ANSON STAGER,
Col. and Supt. U. S M. Telegraphs.

☞ By an error in the official calculation the majority of Judge Agnew is made 213. The correct count gives him 313. But as this mistake will not affect the general result we suppose no action will be taken to correct the return. In the table published today, the figures are corrected.—Butler American.

HEADQUARTERS 101ST REGT. P. V.
Plymouth, N. C., Oct 17.

ED. ARGUS:—An election for Governor of the State of Pennsylvania was held in the camp of the 101st Regiment Penn'a Vols. on the 13th day of October, which resulted as follows:

Curtin	211
Woodward	38

Company "A" being on detached duty and absent from the regiment, did not vote.

The vote of the 103d Regiment Pa Volunteers is not less decided for Curtin.

We have seen it stated that two-thirds of the volunteer force now in the field are Democrats; the above, however, would indicate that "they are not with us."

The vote was taken by the commander of each company, and submitted to a judge and board of inspectors; none were allowed to vote but those who would have been eligible if they had not left their homes to defend their country in its day of peril.

Although disfranchised, we desire to show how we would have voted if we had not left our homes in obedience to our country's call.

A. W TAYLOR,
Lieut Col 101st Regt. P. V.

MAJOR-GENERAL THOMAS.—The news is confirmed that Maj-Gen. Rosecrans has been relieved of the command of the Army of the Cumberland. He is succeeded by Maj. Gen. George H. Thomas, who has established a reputation as a soldier second to none in the country. Major General Grant takes command of the Department of the Cumberland, Ohio and Kentucky; but General Thomas is commander in the field.—This is a most excellent arrangement. Grant and Thomas are the real heroes of the war in the Southwest, and they do all that can be done with the armies under them. Gen. Thomas was born in Southampton county Virginia, July 31st 1816. He graduated at West Point in 1840, and has ever since been in active service in the army. In the war with Mexico he was very distinguished, and he has done some of the most brilliant service that has been recorded in the present war. But for him the battle of Chickamauga would have been a fatal defeat. We look for new glory for the army of the Cumberland under his command.—Pitts. Com.

THE WESTERN ARMY.—This new command of Gen. Grant is a very large one, including as it does the States of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Tennessee, half of Mississippi, and portions of Louisiana, Alabama and Georgia. While he will command all the troops in those States, the army with which he will more immediately operate will be the grand corps of Burnside, Sherman, Hooker and Thomas, the latter lately called the Army of the Cumberland. These grand corps are subdivided into smaller ones, officered and manned as formerly, with the exception of Thomas' corps, which now falls to Gen. L. H. Rosseau, while Gen. Negley, it is said, will succeed to the command of Rosseau's late division. Gen. Grant's headquarters will be, for the present, at Chattanooga.

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS OF WAR.—The following order relative to the exchange of prisoners has just been published:

War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, October 17.—General Orders No. 329.—I. A declaration of exchanges having been announced by R. Ould, Esq., Agent for Exchange, at Richmond, Va., dated September, 12, it is hereby declared that all officers and men of the United States Army captured and paroled previous to the first of September, 1863, are duly exchanged.

The officers and men herein declared exchanged will immediately be sent to join their respective regiments. By order of the Secretary of War.

E. D. TOWNSEND, Assist't Adj't Gen'l.

From the Washington Republican, October 21.

The General Situation.

To day, from this national standpoint, looking to every military and civil Department of the Government, from the Potomac to the Rio Grande rivers, from Charleston to the Rocky Mountains, viewing especially the condition of the finances, and our relations with foreign powers, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, as the great representative man of the Nation, IS MASTER OF THE SITUATION.

To-day we have the news from Europe that the British Government has seized all the rebel rams, so that our great commercial interests will no longer shudder at the thought that American shipping will be swept from the high seas. This inspires our merchants with greater confidence in the Government. The same steamer assures us that the Austrio-French complication in Mexico is assuming such a "questionable shape" as to puzzle the crowned heads of Emperors.

The advance of Banks into Texas, the flight of Lee, the pursuit of Meade, the victories of Burnside, the assumption by Grant of the command of the Western armies, the situation at Charleston, are military causes for rejoicing.

The recent political triumphs in Maine, California, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa, and the prospect of a Union success in New York, are additional reasons for the existence of a feeling of general confidence.

The best evidence in the world that this confidence is felt in the great money mart of New York, is the fact that gold—the financial straw which tells the course of the current—has fallen from 149, at the last board of yesterday, down to 143, where it stood at one o'clock this afternoon.

How the Soldiers Voted.

The Copperheads have everywhere aroused the ire of the soldiers in the field. How else could any intelligent man expect honest, earnest men, to vote. The Copperheads will not, for the next generation, get rid of the position in which they stand with the soldiers. Our Pennsylvania troops, by the next November election, will be authorized to vote. The coming Legislature will pass the act authorizing the soldiers to vote next October. The vote can be officially declared before the time of the Presidential election, and the soldiers allowed to deposit their votes on that occasion.

In Pennsylvania, the soldiers could not, under the Supreme Court decision, vote. An informal vote was taken in many of the regiments, and we have never heard of but one company in which Woodward had a majority over Curtin. In one regiment, largely from this county, the vote stood—Curtin, 249; Woodward, 1. In all the other regiments, that we have seen, the vote was from ten to fifty in the highest for Woodward. Had the entire vote of the soldiers been cast, of say fifty thousand over the age of twenty one, we have no doubt Curtin would have had 40,000 of a majority [illegible] vote.

In Ohio, the soldiers vote so far as heard at Columbus, foots up as follows:

Brough	25,309
Vallandigham	628
	24,681

In Iowa, the soldiers' vote, so far as received, foots up:

Stone, (Union)	4,174
Tuttle, (Copperhead)	764
	3,410

And so runs the thing throughout. Soldiers in the field, battling against Jeff. Davis' rebels, cannot comprehend why Copperheads at home should be constantly praising Jeff. Davis and finding fault with President Lincoln and his administration. —Pittsburg Commercial.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.—A large meeting of unconditional Union men, was held at Eastern Talbot county, yesterday. Addresses were made by Hon. Wm D. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, Henry Winter Davis, and Col Creswell. Judge Kelly announced himself to the crowd of slaveholders, as a Black Republican from Pennsylvania, yet his speech was received with applause. This is the first instance of a Republican Congressman speaking in the slave region of Maryland, and Judge Kelly's reception was most stirring and patriotic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A Fortress Monroe letter to the Herald states that Dr. Wright, executed for the murder of Lt. Sanborn, attempted to escape night before last by assuming his daughters clothes, but was discovered by the sentinel after he had actually passed the guard.

A deserter from Richmond corroborates the statements of destitution in that city, and fears of another bread riot are entertained.

The Herald's Army of the Potomac letter of the 25th, says: Infantry are maintaining long picket lines and cavalry brigades are daily making reconnoissances.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 25.—There is no news of any importance from Chattanooga. Hooker's force has crossed the Tennessee river, and fighing was reported yesterday. The telegraph was cut this morning, but is now working. The river is rising, with five feet on the shoals. No arrivals by river. Gen Rosecrans left for Cincinnati at noon.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—The steamer Massachusetts has arrived from St. Johns, Florida. She left Charleston on Tuesday evening and brings dispatches from Admiral Dahlgren. The seige is progressing favorably. Gen. Gilmore's batteries were nearly ready to open on Charleston.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—A Harrisburg special dispatch to the Bulletin states that all the counties have been heard from officially. Gov. Curtin's majority is 15,325.

Counties to Volunteers.

The following circular, relating to the pay and bounty of men volunteering under the late call for three hundred thousand men, has been issued by Provost Marshal General Fry, and will be found interesting to all who are able to perform military duty:

District Agents are to be appointed by the Provost Marshal General to arrest deserters and procure recruits.

Twenty-five dollars premium will be paid to the agents for each accepted recruit presented by them, who has served in the army at least nine months, and been honorbly discharged for other cause than disability.

Fifteen dollars premium will be paid to all other accepted recruits.

The moneys received from drafted persons as an exemption from service shall constitute a substitute fund for the payment of premiums and bounty to recruits.

The total amount of bounty to be paid to each recruit is four hundred and two dollars, of which he will receive seventy-five dollars cash before leaving the general rendezvous. The balance will be paid to him by installments according to existing regulations.

The monthly compensation of soldiers enlisted under this order will be at the following rates:

If continued in the service three years, Veteran Volunteers, twenty four dollars; other volunteers, not veteran, twenty-one dollars and thirty cents.

If discharged at the end of two years—Veterans, twenty-nine dollars and seventy cents; other volunteers, twenty five dollars and fifty cents.

If honorably mustered out, in less than two years, the monthly rate of compensation will be increased as the term of service is diminished.

If the Government shall not require these troops for the full term of three years, and they shall be honorably mustered out before the expiration of their term of enlistment, they shall receive the whole amount of bounty remaining unpaid the same as if the full term had been served. Legal heirs of recruits who die in the service, shall be entitled to the whole bounty remaining unpaid at the time of the soldier's death.

Any person practising or attempting to practice frauds or imposition either on the Government or the recruit shall be summarily dealt with by a military commission.

Men enlisted under this order will be assigned to old regiments.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.

It has been extensively rumored today that Gen. Meade has been superseded by Maj.-Gen. Sedgwick, of Sixth corps, but there is no foundation for it.

The Chronicle this morning says that Gen. Meade stated that the army of the Potomac cannot move for three weeks, on account of the destruction of railroad.

Admiral Dahlgren is relieved. His son arrived this morning from Charleston. The Admiral will be here in a few days. Capt. Turner, of the Ironsides, takes Dahlgren's place.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Special to the Times. E. A. Paul sends the following to this Bureau.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, Oct. 24.—The enemy's infantry recrossed the Rappahannock this morning upon two pontoon bridges, near the Orange and Alexandria Railroad bridge and were driven back by Gen. Gregg's cavalry division, which lost heavily. He had a short engagement with two brigades of our infantry, one belonging to the second corps the other to the third corps. The enemy now occupy the line, the left of which rests near Beverly Ford, crossing the railroad near Bolton Station, and extending toward Stafford Court House.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23, '63.

The Christian Commission, having received assurances from the Richmond authorities that packages sent to the prisons in that vicinity would be faithfully distributed to the Union prisoners, have just dispatched 21 boxes of clothing, hospital stores, and reading matter to the Union soldiers in the prisons of Richmond.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 23.

No news from the armies to day.—Burnside is believed to be threatened by a heavy force from Bragg's army. Buckner is advancing into East Tennessee via London.

I have good authority for announcing that Gen. Buell will be Grant's chief of staff.

J. J. Astor, Jr., of New York, has written a note to the Tax Commissioners that, understanding that by some mistake his house on Fifth Avenue had been valued, on the books, at $10,000 instead of $100,000, he consents to having the amount changed.

☞ Lately a strong Union feeling has developed itself in northern Texas. After the news of the surrender of Port Hudson and Vicksburg, several Union organizations were formed.—As a result of this, at the August election, Mr. Morgan the Union candidate for Congress, was elected in the first district, comprising nineteen counties.

☞ Among the candidates already named for the speakership of the House of Representatives is the Hon. Elihu B. Washburne, of Illinois, who, by longest continued service, will be the senior member of that body. His friends are, it is known, actively at work for him.

☞ Confederate money having become practically worthless, a nameless South Carolina statesman proposes to dispense with money altogether. This plan is very simple and seems to be about the only alternative left to the Confederacy.

To be Executed.—We understand that Dr. D. M. Wright, of Norfolk, has been found guilty of the murder of Lieut. Sanborn, and sentenced to be executed to-morrow. Sanborn was Lieutenant of a colored company, and was shot by the doctor, whilst marching his men through the street. We hear that the counsel of Wright will endeavor to obtain a week's respite for him, on the ground that he has only had forty hours notice of his death.—Washington Star, Oct. 15th.

Fire.—The Third Presbyterian church in Pittsburg, was consumed by fire on Wednesday morning last. It was one of the oldest church edifices in that city. It was erected in 1832, and cost some $30,000. Rev. Dr. Riddle was its first pastor, and preached there for a period of over twenty-five years.

Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR PAINS AND ACHES, and I warranted superior to any other. Croup it positively cures; relief is absolutely sure immediately it is used. Mothers remember this, and arm yourselves with a bottle without delay. Croup is disease which gives no notice, frequently attacking the child in the dead hour of night; before a physician can be summoned it may be too late. Remember, the Venetian Liniment never fails. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Office, 56 Cortlandt Street, New-York.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and loins, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from the obstruction of nature.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to an UNTIMELY GRAVE. No female can enjoy health unless she is regular, and when obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

is the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to females. To all of these they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known by thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout this country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor. Dr. Smith of Bridgewater sole agent for this County.

The Neuralgia and Rheumatic Plaster (large size,) for Pains in the Chest, Shoulders, Back, or any part of the body, sent post paid, on receipt of Thirty-seven cents.

Address,
WM. B. HURD, CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Perfumery Stores. If they cannot, send to us for the DENTAL TREASURY, Price ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW.

WE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and a leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor chemicals, and polishes without injuring the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from any evil exhalations, and if used in the morning will make the breakfast taste sweet and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the two best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth. Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.

Farmers and mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Hurd's observations on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's curative Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 25 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and postage stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they want them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing 37 cts. for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail; but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to go into the business, to good and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men or women! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,

WM. B. HURD & CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH,

A Family and an Agricultural Journal,

DEVOTED TO

CHOICE LITERATURE,

INCLUDING

Poetry, Novelettes, Tales,

AND MORAL AND ENTERTAINING READING GENERALLY.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empirics and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present the condensed and carefully made up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

"VANITY FAIR."

"This is the first really clever comic and satirical journal we have had in America—and really clever it is. It is both sharp and good-tempered, and not afraid to say that its soul is its own—which shows that it has a soul. Our readers will be glad to know where they can find native fun that has something better in it than mere pawky."—Atlantic Monthly.

"This paper is excellent . . . , Remarkable for originality."—N. Y. Traveller.

"VANITY FAIR is conducted by a vivacious, witty and intelligent corps of journalists."—Litchfield (Conn.) Enquirer.

"Will wield as potent an influence as that of the London Punch."—Boston Traveler.

"Whosoever finds himself laughing at the wit of VANITY FAIR, and does not return a quid pro quo, is fit for treason, and spoils."—N. Y. Crayon.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The very marked and flattering success which has thus far attended the publication of "VANITY FAIR,"

Enables the publisher to announce that with the commencement of the Second Volume, issued this day, 8th June, New Features, both Literary and Artistic, will be introduced, which will increase the value and interest of the paper, and fully maintain the proud position unanimously accorded to it, as the leading

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT,

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases,

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES

THIS institution is now open for the reception, cure, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic diseases. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams: all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

TO PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

THE undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made officinal in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicians who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—
Compound Extract of Colocynth,
Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lipulin Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,
Citrate of Iron and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,
Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark, agreeable; chalybeates,
Syrup of the Hypophosphites,
Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,
Oxalate of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,
Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia; a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, where a nervous stimulant and antacid is indicated,
Solution of Bi meconate of Morphia; same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in its effects,
Pyro phosphate of Iron; soluble.
These, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

I am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

CRITTENDEN'S
PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL
COLLEGE,
N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundred of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time, by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time a DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure. MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for at all lands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightly wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Yo cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable nor more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH Before we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp,

DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment opened, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find therein a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London" are discernible as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
